ment including the cost of acquiring

JAPANESE MAY
ERECT CANNERY
FOR OWN GOODS

Cooperative Plant is Suggested to Make Pineapple Cultivation Profitable

"Japanese may form a cooperative company for the erection of a pineapple cannery," said K. Kawamura, city editor of the Nippon Jih.
"That is the only solution to the question of continuing the cultivation of pineapples among the Japanese, as at the present time the cultivators of pineapples are in financial distress." This statement was in answer to a question as to the possibility of the Japanese pineapple growers continuing to raise the pines. It has been rumored that the growers on this island would abandon the raising of pines and plant sugar cane.

In talks with Japanese identified with the pineapple industry it is discovered that the growers have lost money the past year, and that the cultivated area is decreasing rapidly. At the present time, according to the Japanese, the price paid is insufficient to pay for the cultivation.
Japanese growers state that the pineapple is the only source of revenue at present and that the only step to take is to plant sugar cane or organize a cooperative company among the Japanese.

According to a Japanese familiar with the situation, the pineapple growers would begin the planting of sugar cane if they were encouraged.
Failing in this it is thought that a move would be made to erect a cannery to take care of the products.
A plan for the establishment of a cannery on a cooperative basis was brought about four years ago, H.
Eitake, then consul-general, taking an active part in the movement. Many of the Japanese were enthusiastic over the plan, while others did not want to invest owing to the possibility of a loss. Then again the Japanese growers, according to a prominent Japanese, failed to see farther than their nose, and wanted immediate payment for their pines in preference to waiting for a dividend.

Japanese growers complain that the cannery signed a contract some time ago to pay $15 a ton for the product, but since that time the price has dropped as low as $5, and at this amount the growers state that it is impossible to meet expenses.

Y. M. C. A. SECRETARIES MAY MEET IN HONOLULU

Y. M. C. A. secretaries from all of the states and countries bordering on the Pacific may come here in 1918 to a Pan-Pacific Convention, if the plans of local leaders can be arranged.
It is thought that with a campaign during the next two years the project would become successful. This would bring to Honolulu secretaries from all the countries of the Far East, from the Pacific Coast and from Alaska.

"We would surely welcome the secretaries here," said A. E. Larimer of the Y. M. C. A. "It is a big project, and all those things take time, but with live wires coming from every section bordering on the Pacific, the interchange of ideas would be worth all the time and trouble it would cost in preparing for the convention. Big men would come here and it would naturally add to the publicity of Hawaii."

"The plan was suggested by Alexander Hume Ford, who has been active in working for conventions for Honolulu, and I am sure that all of the members of the local association will approve the plan should it be feasible," he concluded.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS
ATTENDANT AT HOSPITAL

The police committee recommends in a report to the board of supervisors filed Saturday that the emergency hospital physician be empowered to appoint an attendant for the hospital.
Attention is called to the great amount of work being done by the hospital at present.

Before action can be taken by the board a recommendation from the mayor is necessary.
